

Swings for the Spectrum is more than a night of golf. It is a celebration of potential - and an opportunity for our community to invest directly in adults with autism.

Autism Community Training (ACT) was founded on the belief that every individual deserves the opportunity to discover their strengths and contribute meaningfully to the community. Our trainees attend ACT daily and participate in individualized vocational and life-skills training designed to build confidence, strengthen independence, and prepare them for meaningful work and adult life.

YOUR SPONSORSHIP

Directly supports job training, life-skills development, and employment pathways for ACT trainees.

YOUR IMPACT

Helps create more opportunities for adults with autism to work, grow, participate, and belong.

Why Your Support Matters

For families of adults with autism, meaningful options after high school can be difficult to find. ACT helps fill that gap through individualized training, daily skill development, community engagement, and opportunities that prepare trainees for meaningful adult lives.

ACT provides the training. Your partnership helps make it possible.

Susan Higgins – shiggins@autismcareertraining.org

Thank you for championing the abilities and promise of individuals in the autism community. We deeply appreciate your consideration and support. Your partnership will bring hope, relief, and renewed purpose to families of adults with autism, and will enable us to continue providing life-changing programs that prepare our trainees for brighter, more independent futures.

Let's swing with purpose and create lasting change—together!

With heartfelt thanks,

K. Blake
